

The Moderns

1900-1950

1. What are the three parts of the human mind, according to Freud's psychoanalysis?
2. How many times did Robert Frost win a Pulitzer Prize?
3. At what battle in WWI were chemical weapons used for the first time?
4. How many lifeboats were on the Titanic?
5. Sinclair Lewis' novel, Main Street, was set in a small town in Minnesota, what is the name of that small town?
6. When was the final date (month, day, and year) that the 19th Amendment to the Constitution went through its final ratification?
7. What is October 24, 1929 often called?
8. What is Lieutenant Frederic Henry's job during WWI in the novel A Farewell to Arms?
9. When Oklahoma! opened at the St. James Theatre on March 31, 1943, how many performances did it run?
10. What caused the Great Depression?
11. President Harry S. Truman was the President who ordered the bombs to be dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, Japan. What was Truman's occupation for 12 years that he was very prosperous at?
12. What was Richard Wright's goal in writing Native Son, and all his other works for that matter?
13. For what work did Edna St. Vincent Millay win the Pulitzer Prize for in poetry in 1923?
14. What city hosted the first meeting of the United Nations?
15. What is the Harlem Renaissance?
16. In what year did the peanut butter and jelly sandwich become famous?